

Annual Conference Bingo 2014

Squares are identified according to categories (in bold). In order to count a square as marked, you must do the following:

- “People You Should Know”—you must at least exchange greetings with the person in question. Spotting them from across the room doesn’t count.
- “Buzzwords”—can be spoken at anytime by anyone, but must be made in all seriousness. If someone is making fun of a buzzword, it doesn’t count.
- “Announcements”—you must be present at the time the announcement is made.
- “Attire”—can be spotted from afar. If you can see it, you can count it.
- “Wild Card”—anything goes.

All scoring is done according to the honor system. You must black out five in a row (vertically, horizontally, or diagonally) for a bingo. When you get a bingo, find Eric Van Meter to claim your prize.

People You Should Know	Buzzwords	Announcements	Attire	Wild Card
The Bishop	“Wilderness”	An award of any kind	Cross and flame polo	Someone shorter than 5’5”
Your DS	“Excellence and Passion”	Bar of the conference	Seersucker pants	Someone asleep during a session
At least one lay delegate from your charge	“Revival”	FREE SPACE!	Bowtie	A college logo NOT connected to U of A
Amy Forbus	“New ways”	Printed material availability	Flip-flops	Candy Crush
A pastor retiring as of this AC	“Effective”	Someone ruled out of order	Wristwatch	An iPad

Annual Conference 2014

Photo Scavenger Hunt

Scavenger Hunt: Find each of the items below. Take a picture of it. Once you've completed all ten items, text Eric at 870.219.6255 to claim a prize.

- 1) Any seminary logo
- 2) The bishop on screen
- 3) Four lay delegates in a row, arranged in alphabetical order according to first name
- 4) A redhead
- 5) The John Q. Hammons Convention Center, viewed from the west
- 6) An on-duty cashier
- 7) Four clergy in a row, arranged in alphabetical order according to charge served
- 8) A "Clergy" sticker on an automobile
- 9) A non-Razorback sports logo
- 10) Bifocals

Annual Conference 2014

Find Someone

Check off the entire list and claim a prize. Locate someone who...

- 1) Lives in the same county as you
- 2) Can name all four Beatles
- 3) Knows who Eli Lindsay was
- 4) Wears a wristwatch
- 5) Watches Game of Thrones
- 6) Can find Possum Grape on a map without an internet search
- 7) Likes Chinese food
- 8) Can name at least four of the Avengers
- 9) Served under Bishop Wilke
- 10) Lives outside of Arkansas
- 11) Knows how to clean a fish
- 12) Drives a car that gets over 30 MPG
- 13) Worships in a church with 25 or fewer in average attendance
- 14) Has read all three Hunger Games books
- 15) Wears the same brand of shoes as you

Annual Conference 2014 Keyword Challenge

Keyword challenge. Work the following words or phrases into casual conversation. If someone calls you on what you're doing, the point doesn't count.

- ostrich
- eat an alligator
- bazinga
- beans and bacon
- Neil Diamond
- Space shuttle
- Holy schniekies
- Buffalo herd
- Best tattoo in Wal-Mart
- Moses in the third grade
- Call me maybe
- Challenge accepted
- Dancing stegosaurus
- I am the walrus
- I'm Olaf and I like warm hugs
- Strategery

Annual Conference Bingo 2014

Squares are identified according to categories (in bold). In order to count a square as marked, you must do the following:

- “People You Should Know”—you must at least exchange greetings with the person in question. Spotting them from across the room doesn’t count.
- “Buzzwords”—can be spoken at anytime by anyone, but must be made in all seriousness. If someone is making fun of a buzzword, it doesn’t count.
- “Announcements”—you must be present at the time the announcement is made.
- “Attire”—can be spotted from afar. If you can see it, you can count it.
- “Wild Card”—anything goes.

All scoring is done according to the honor system. You must black out five in a row (vertically, horizontally, or diagonally) for a bingo. When you get a bingo, find Eric Van Meter to claim your prize.

People You Should Know	Buzzwords	Announcements	Attire	Wild Card
Your nearest Wesley Foundation director	“Restructure”	Any meal announcement	Cross and flame jewelry of any kind	A college logo that is not a Razorback
Anyone currently in course of study	“Creative”	Committee announcement	Clerical collar	Cold-weather attire
J. Harris Moore	“Mission Field”	FREE SPACE!	Cap or hat	A tennis ball
A deacon	“Effectiveness”	Printed material availability	A comb-over	A tablet or e-reader
Someone being ordained at this AC	“Accountability”	Change in schedule	Denim shirt	Anything pink

Annual Conference Bingo 2014

Squares are identified according to categories (in bold). In order to count a square as marked, you must do the following:

- “People You Should Know”—you must at least exchange greetings with the person in question. Spotting them from across the room doesn’t count.
- “Buzzwords”—can be spoken at anytime by anyone, but must be made in all seriousness. If someone is making fun of a buzzword, it doesn’t count.
- “Announcements”—you must be present at the time the announcement is made.
- “Attire”—can be spotted from afar. If you can see it, you can count it.
- “Wild Card”—anything goes.

All scoring is done according to the honor system. You must black out five in a row (vertically, horizontally, or diagonally) for a bingo. When you get a bingo, find Eric Van Meter to claim your prize.

People You Should Know	Buzzwords	Announcements	Attire	Wild Card
Any member of the custodial staff	“Renewal”	Anything pertaining to an offering	A class ring	A tootsie roll
Any clergy spouse	“Vision”	Change in schedule	Flip-flops	The Methodist Family Health booth
A Wesley Foundation rep	“Excellence and Passion”	FREE SPACE!	Plaid	A tattoo
DeDe Roberts	“Center for Technology”	A parliamentary clarification	Cross-and-flame shirt of any kind	Someone taller than 6’2”
A pastor being ordained at this AC	“Courage”	Retraction or correction of previous announcement	A UMW pin	Ear buds

Annual Conference Bingo 2014

Squares are identified according to categories (in bold). In order to count a square as marked, you must do the following:

- “People You Should Know”—you must at least exchange greetings with the person in question. Spotting them from across the room doesn’t count.
- “Buzzwords”—can be spoken at anytime by anyone, but must be made in all seriousness. If someone is making fun of a buzzword, it doesn’t count.
- “Announcements”—you must be present at the time the announcement is made.
- “Attire”—can be spotted from afar. If you can see it, you can count it.
- “Wild Card”—anything goes.

All scoring is done according to the honor system. You must black out five in a row (vertically, horizontally, or diagonally) for a bingo. When you get a bingo, find Eric Van Meter to claim your prize.

People You Should Know	Buzzwords	Announcements	Attire	Wild Card
John Embrey	“Emerging”	Change in schedule	wristwatch	Facial hair (men only)
Any BMCR member	“We don’t know yet”	Local church event invitation	Paisley necktie	Any NFL logo
Your DS	“Accountability”	FREE SPACE!	Striped socks	Any pastor changing appointments
Someone with a child under 6 months of age	“Sustainability”	Any ordination announcement	Wesley foundation t-shirt	Any bible verse (not projected on screen)
Anyone under age 25	“Connection” Or “Connectional”	Anything related to an offering	Sunglasses worn inside a building	An “observer” ribbon on a nametag

Annual Conference Bingo 2014

Squares are identified according to categories (in bold). In order to count a square as marked, you must do the following:

- “People You Should Know”—you must at least exchange greetings with the person in question. Spotting them from across the room doesn’t count.
- “Buzzwords”—can be spoken at anytime by anyone, but must be made in all seriousness. If someone is making fun of a buzzword, it doesn’t count.
- “Announcements”—you must be present at the time the announcement is made.
- “Attire”—can be spotted from afar. If you can see it, you can count it.
- “Wild Card”—anything goes.

All scoring is done according to the honor system. You must black out five in a row (vertically, horizontally, or diagonally) for a bingo. When you get a bingo, find Eric Van Meter to claim your prize.

People You Should Know	Buzzwords	Announcements	Attire	Wild Card
Amy Forbus	“Core Values” (bonus points if you get a sensible definition)	Anything pertaining to retirement	Skinny jeans	Any current seminary student
A local pastor	“Revival”	Bar of the conference	Solid-colored necktie	Any smartphone
At least one lay delegate from your charge	“Movement”	FREE SPACE!	Big earrings	Cardinals attire
Any BOM member	“Institutional”	Ordination rehearsal	Nike shoes	A legal pad
A Cubs fan	“Passion and Excellence”	Retirement announcement	plaid	Popcorn